

Change of Password on Mac

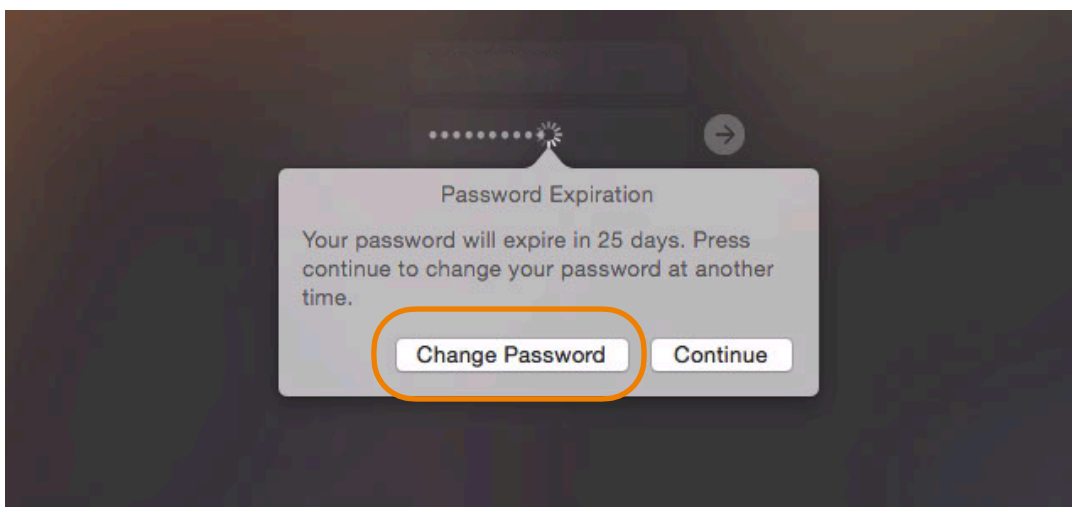

The following instructions shows how to change a password on AU Mac

Before you change:

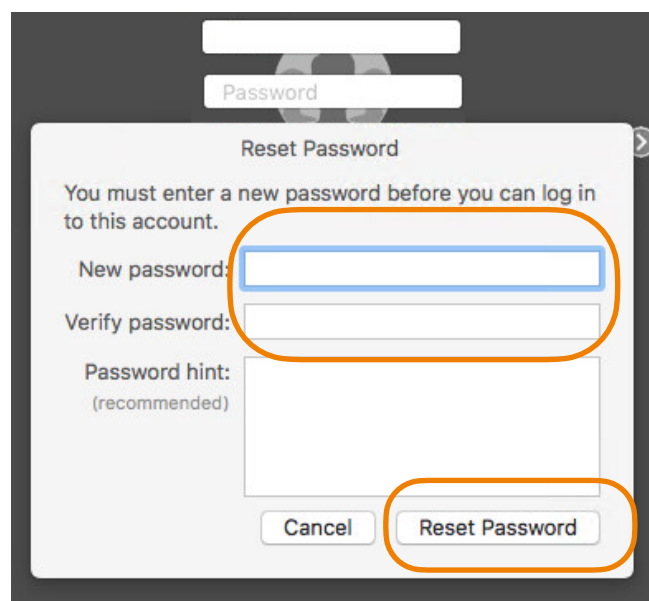

- Computer must be on UNI Domain
- Computer must be on AU network, either cable or Eduroam

Change of password at login

Upon login, there is a message that the password is about to expire. Select Change Password

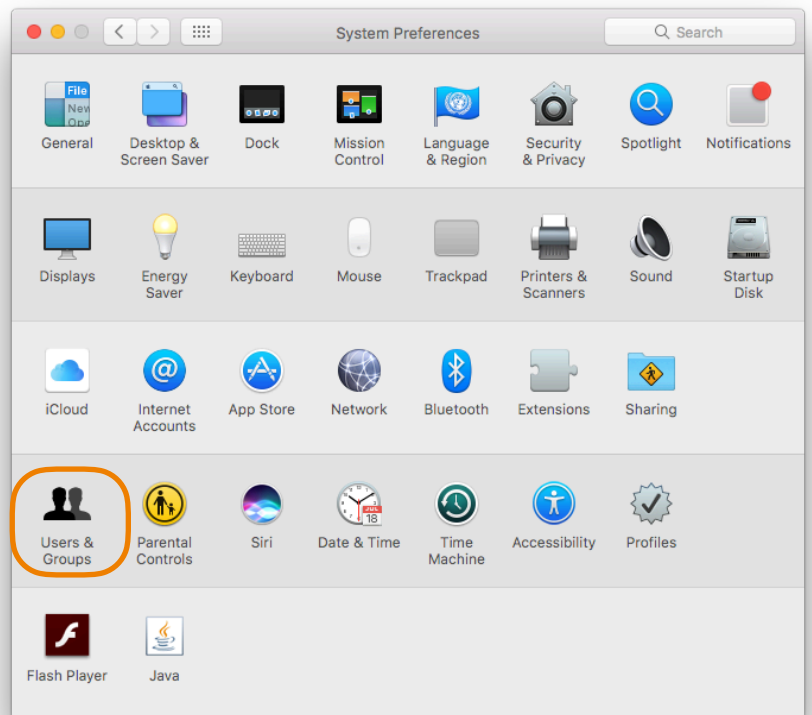

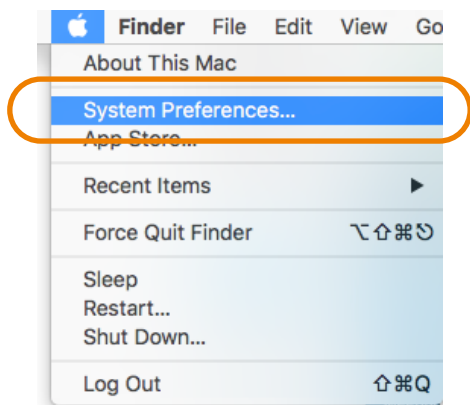

Fill in the fields with the new password and password confirm and click Reset Password

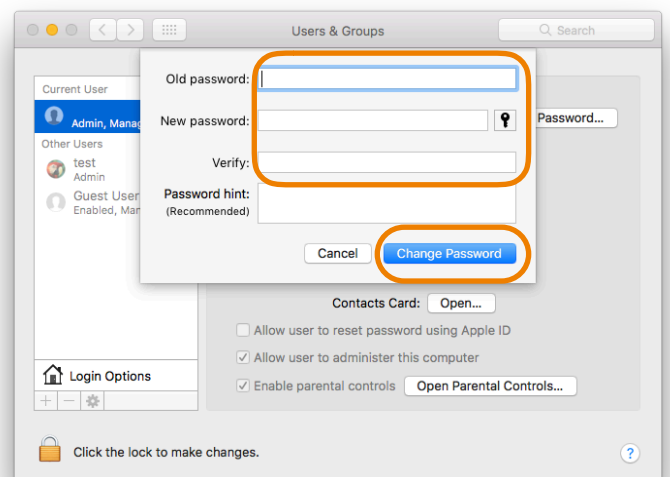

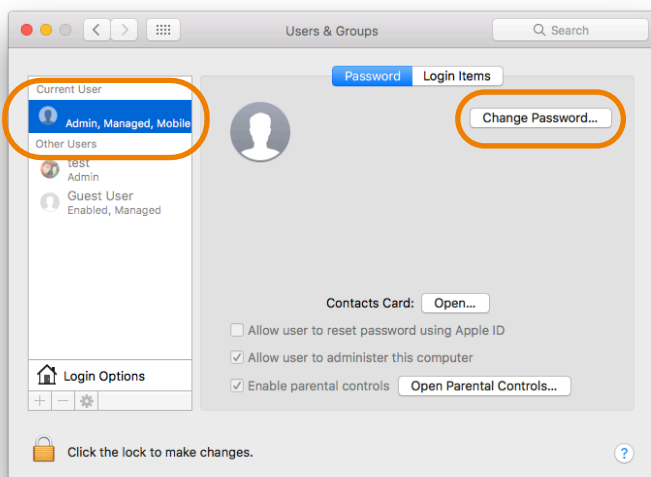

Change of password upon login

Select System Preferences

Select Users and Groups

Choose your own user and choose Change Password Fill in the old and new password fields

Restart your computer and log in with the new password