Holiday registration for the holiday year 2019-2020

Based on discussions in the Main Liaison Committee, the university has adopted holiday guidelines which can be found here: http://medarbejdere.au.dk/administration/hr/ferie/ferieafholdelse/.

In accordance with these guidelines, a dialogue about holiday planning will be initiated in the beginning of February.

The enclosed holiday registration form is part of the dialogue about holiday planning. In this form, you can write when you would like to take your holiday and, if relevant, when you would like to take any special holidays.

Please complete the enclosed form and give it to (place) no later than (date) or send the completed form attached to an email to (email address).

If you have accrued the right to take full holiday, but you do not complete the form or only complete the form partly before the deadline, it will be registered, if scheduling permits, that the five weeks of holiday and the five special holidays will be taken as follows:

Holiday:
• Four weeks in July (weeks 27, 28, 29 and 30)
• One week in connection with Christmas and New Year (22 December, days before Christmas and New Year, and any remaining days immediately after New Year)

Special holidays:
• Two days during the autumn break (week 42)
• Three days before Easter

Please note that only special holidays that have been accrued may be taken. As an employee, you are therefore only entitled to take special holidays if they have been accrued during your current employment or if special holidays have been transferred. from a previous employment based on agreement. This means that you are not entitled to take special holidays without pay.

The same principles apply to scheduling holiday for new employees who have accrued partial holiday entitlement but who do not fill out the holiday registration form by the specified deadline, to the extent possible with due regard to maintaining necessary workplace functions.

Shortly after 1 April, you will be informed whether or not your request for holiday has been granted. After this, the holiday schedule will be considered as finalised. If you so request, the holiday schedule may be changed subsequently based on agreement and if duty permits.

If you have any questions, please contact (name).

Kind regards,
