

Strike notices at Aarhus University

Strike notices as they apply to employees at Aarhus University are listed in the table below.

The date for the commencement of the strike action is indicated for each strike notice. The conciliation board has the authority to postpone the date at a later point. The strikes which have been announced will not take place in the event that the negotiating parties conclude new collective agreements.

Exempt from the strike: As a general rule, strike notices do not apply to the following groups:

- Managers organised under the Danish Confederation of Professional Associations (AC) in salary grade 36 or the equivalent
- Public servants (tjenestemænd)
- Employees employed on comparable terms as tjenestemænd
- Trainees
- Employees on individual contracts
- Employees who are not members of the negotiating unions

Aarhus University has no record of the union affiliations of its employees. Employees to whom a strike notice does not apply on the grounds of their lack of affiliation with the union in question are encouraged to inform their immediate supervisor of this in writing.
