

Course: Feedback

Participants

Teachers at AU

Contents

You will be inspired to organize activities, where students can receive feedback from you or automatically. These activities may involve the use of tools in Blackboard and/or digital services on the internet. Examples from teaching at Arts are included.

Learning Goals

The participants will gain:

- Insight into research of using peer feedback in teaching
- Knowledge about tools that can be used for feedback in and outside class
- Ideas on, how tools can be used in and out of class
- Skills in using selected tools

Course Format

The course lasts 1½ hours and participants should, if possible, bring their own laptop. There will be time for hands-on.

Materials

The focus of the course is an oral presentation and a collection of guides.
