Our 6th international IDF mastitis conference will take place in Copenhagen, Denmark on 14 to 17 of May 2019. The conference will be hosted by SEGES, the Danish Agricultural Advisory Board, and take place at DGI Byen in Copenhagen, Denmark. This conference is a unique opportunity for researchers, advisors, industry and teachers around the World to share knowledge, debate, question, and bring our field of science forward.

I will be delighted to welcome you as a participant, and I am looking forward to your active participation.

Please be informed that the conference and organizers will not be able to give any support financially (including travelling expenses and accommodation) and/or be held responsible for any financial claims.

Further information about the conference can be found at:
