Detailed schedule for presentations:

13:45-14:40
	Using educational IT in teaching: Associate Professor Carsten Bergenholtz, Department of Management (in Danish)
	E-Museum and the digitalisation of anatomy teaching: v/Henrik Løvschall, Department of Dentistry (in Danish)
	The digitalisation of evaluation: Torben K. Jensen, Centre for Teaching and Learning (in Danish)
	E-books in classroom teaching in forensic medicine for medical students: Asser Hedegård Thomsen, Department of Forensic Medicine (in Danish)
Coffee break and visiting stands
15:20 -16:35
	The Blackboard template at the Department of Political Science: Asbjørn Skjæveland, Department of Political Science (in Danish) curriculearn.dk - an innovative online tool for improving students' written exam-taking skills: Ditlev Brodersen, Department of Molecular Biology and Genetics (in Danish)
	Instructional videos for lab work: Christian Holm, Department of Biomedicine (in Danish)
	Big data in humanities teaching: Kristoffer Nielbo, School of Culture and Society (in Danish)
	Sci2u: Teaching maths using IT-supported skills training: Bjørk Hammer,