INVITATION

The Danish University and Property Agency (UBST) has acquired and renovated a new Campus building, which Aarhus University will dedicate to talent development and internationalization. The building will be home to administrative, social and academic activities targeting international students and early career researchers. Specifically, the building contains International Centre, meeting facilities for transversal PhD activities, a café and a dormitory for newly arrived international PhD students.

The International Centre has been donated two Erik A. Frandsen works of art. A mosaic donated by Salling's Memorial Fund and a painting donated by The Augustinus Fund.

It is our pleasure to invite you to participation in the inauguration of the building.

Tuesday 1 February 2011, 12:30-14:00
